AHI and TDMH announce new President and CEO

Alexandra Hospital, Ingersoll and Tillsonburg District Memorial Hospital Joint Board of Directors is pleased to announce that Nadia Facca has been named as the two hospitals' new President and CEO, effective April 25, 2022.

Following an extensive search and recruitment process, the Selection Committee made the unanimous recommendation to the Joint Board of Directors. The Joint Board of Directors voted and approved to appoint Ms. Facca to this role.

Ms. Facca brings with her a commitment to quality healthcare and patient safety. She is a very experienced and skilled hospital leader, working in healthcare for over 17 years with several progressive leadership roles. Ms. Facca has been instrumental in the success of a number of health initiatives system-wide, including the implementation of a comprehensive corporate strategic Quality Management System at a large tertiary academic hospital. Ms. Facca proudly was the co-lead for the LHSC United Way 2020 and 2021 Campaign teams; they were honoured with the 2020 United Way Elgin Middlesex Change Maker award for Outstanding Workplace Campaign Team.

Ms. Facca is a Licensed Pharmacist with the Ontario College of Pharmacists and a member of the Canadian College of Health Leaders. She is working towards her Canadian Health Executive designation in 2022. She also has a Master of Health Studies, Organizational Leadership from Athabasca University.

"I am looking forward to the opportunity to lead Alexandra Hospital, Ingersoll and Tillsonburg District Memorial Hospital into the future," says Ms. Facca. "I am honoured to be joining a team of dedicated leaders, staff, physicians, volunteers and Board members. Together we can work towards providing the highest quality, safest care to the communities we serve".
